

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT SEATTLE

11 BUNGIE, INC.,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 NICHOLAS MINOR, a/k/a "LORD
15 NAZO",

16 Defendant.

17 CASE NO. 22-371 MJP

18 ORDER DENYING MOTION TO
19 EXTEND DISPOSITIVE
20 DEADLINES

21 This matter comes before the Court on the parties' Stipulated Motion to Extend Deadline
22 to File Dispositive Motions. (Dkt. No. 36.) Having reviewed the Motion, the docket, and all
23 relevant material, the Court DENIES the Motion.

24 The parties seek a one-month extension from December 18, 2023, to January 17, 2023 to 25 file dispositive motions. The parties claim good cause exists because Bungie is involved in 26 another trial for the matter and has a number of trial deadlines throughout December. The Court
27 does not find another trial to be good cause. The parties are responsible for managing their cases
28 and knowing when they will be in trial. Additionally, the other case involving Bungie – Bungie,

1 | Inc. v. Aimjunkies.com et al, No. 2:21-cv-00811 (W.D. Wash.) has been stayed. (See Dec. 1,
2 | 2023 Order Striking Jury Trial). If the Court were to grant a one month extension it would not
3 | provide sufficient time for the Court to deal with the dispositive motions before the parties' trial
4 | date in April. The Court therefore DENIES the parties' request, but will provide a brief extension
5 | for the parties to draft any motions. The Court EXTENDS the dispositive motion deadline from
6 | December 18, 2023 to December 22, 2023.

7 The clerk is ordered to provide copies of this order to all counsel.

8 Dated December 12, 2023.

9

10 Marsha J. Pechman
11 United States Senior District Judge